ENGLAND TO GIVE UP FRENCH GOLD

500,000,000 Francs Held Eight Years as Guarantee to Be Returned.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, September 6.—It is announced that approximately 500,000,000 gold francs of the 1914-1916 issue of French gold on deposit with the Bank of England since 1916, as guarantee for credits advanced to the French government, are to be returned to France within a few days.

Considerable satisfaction is expressed in the ministry of finance and the Bank of France, and it is planned to continue the payments against which the gold was hypothecated until the entire amount is returned.

French financiers have been concerned over the tying up in the Bank of England for six years of nearly two-fifths of the Bank of France's gold.

Cynical Observers Hushed.

Timid and cynical observers often have wondered whether this gold would ever be released to find its way again to France; consequently the announcement from London that a considerable part of the deposit is about to be surrendered is reassuring.

It is felt also that it will give somewhat greater liberty of political action to France, which has some humiliation at having such an enormous part of its gold held abroad.

HUMAN HAND MAILED TO COLORED EDITOR

Accompanying Letter, Signed "K. K.," Warns Randolph to Stay With Own Race.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, September 6.—A package containing a human left hand, evidently that of a white man, and a letter signed "K. K.," threatening murder, has been received by A. Philip Randolph, editor of a negro monthly magazine, the Messenger. The package, which bore a wrapper marked "From a Friend, New Orleans," was opened by the police.

The letter warned Randolph to keep out of white men's movements and to unite with his own race. Randolph said he believed it was sent by his enemies in the south, and that it referred to a recent controversy between himself and Marcus Garvey, president of the Provisional Republic of Africa and editor of the Negro World.

After telling Randolph that his movements have been watched, the author of the letter warns him against interfering with anything that may happen in the south. It concludes: "Now be careful how you publish this letter in your magazine or we may have to send your hand to some place else. Don't think we can't get you and your crowd. Although you are in New York city it is just as easy as if you were in Georgia. If you can't unite with your own race we will find out what's the matter with you all."
